

1. The Revelation of Jesus Christ

- a) Revelation 1:1–2
 - i) A revelation from Jesus Christ?
 - ii) A revelation about Jesus Christ?
 - iii) Both?
- b) Why do you think a special blessing is attached to the reading and hearing of this prophetic book?
- c) Revelation 22:18–19, how does this strong warning reinforce the importance of this prophetic message from Jesus Christ?

2. Links between Daniel and Revelation

- a) Both contain real life stories with last day application.
- b) Both contain prophecies about future events.
- c) Revelation contains many references back to the Hebrew Scriptures, including the book of Daniel.
- d) Why bother to study these old books? How does a study of these ancient Scriptures help us prepare for the end time? 1 Corinthians 10:11; Romans 15:4.

3. Images of Jesus in Revelation

- a) Revelation 1:5, firstborn from the dead, ruler over the kings of earth
- b) Revelation 1:7, coming with clouds (see Matthew 24:27, 30–31)
- c) Revelation 1:17–18, the First and the Last
- d) Revelation 5:8, the Lamb

- e) Revelation 19:11–15, King of Kings and Lord of Lords
- f) Revelation 22:13, the Alpha and the Omega
- g) Why are so many titles used in reference to Jesus in the Book of Revelation? Why not limit to one title?
- h) How do these images of Jesus in Revelation give us courage as we prepare of the End Time?

4. A key chapter in Revelation: Chapter 12

- a) Revelation 12:1–6
- b) Revelation 12:7–10
- c) Revelation 12:13–17
- d) Revelation 12:11–12
- e) If this was the only chapter we had from Revelation, what vitally important lessons could we learn?

5. Discussion questions

- a) What can we learn from the picture of Jesus walking in the midst of the seven churches and sending specific messages to each one? Revelation 1:9–20
- b) What does it mean for you personally to know Jesus has the keys for the grave and death?
- c) What is the reward Jesus brings with Him? Revelation 22:12 (see also Isaiah 40:10–11)
- d) What lesson have you learned from today's study that can help you prepare for the End Time?

